SUBJECT.

Embezzlement of Rs 20 by Gumasta Sarvadhar of Tirupati Charities, and non-submission of the daily Chitta accounts

From

The Dharmadarsi of Tirupati charities

No. 95 + 104 Dated 31st March 1905. dated 10th April 1905

X. His No 79 dt 5th March 1905)

The Dharmadarsi of His Highness the Maharaja's Charities at Tirupati reported that he received information from Parasu-Rama, Dalledar, to the effect that when he & certain other residents of the place were at the Railway Station to see His Highness the Maharaja of Benares &, His Highness' aid-de-camp, Capt. Vidheswara Prasad Singhji, said that a sum of Rs 20 had been given into the hands of Sarvadhar as a present for distribution to the Servants of the Charities. As sanction of Govt had to be obtained regarding the distribution, the Dharmadarsi made enquiries into the matter when Ganadhar said that he had not received any such amount. He afterwards ascertained from certain other persons who were present on the platform on the day when His Highness left Nimpati & learnt from them that the aid-de-camp did make mention of Rs 20 having been paid to Ganadhar The Dharmadarsi thereupon suggested that the truth of the allegation could be ascertained from the aid-de-camp who was at the time in Bangalore.

The written explanation of Ganadhar having been called for, the Dharmadarsi has submitted it in which Ganadhar states that he is not aware of the sum of Rs 20 having been paid to any of the temple servants & denies all knowledge of this either having seen or heard of the amount in question. He adds "that he feels ashamed for having been called upon to explain, seeing that he has been a trusted Govt. servant in charge of thousands of rupees. He desires a thorough investigation into the matter with a view to the party at fault being severely dealt with.

Muzrai Secretary's remarks:-

Happening to meet H.H. the Maharaja's party at the Railway Station, Bangalore, when they were proceeding to Mysore on the night when I travelled to Melkote, I spoke to the Maharaja's Aid-de-camp on the subject of this present. He consulted an Assistant of his and told me that a sum of Rs20 was given as a present ~~to the~~ into the hands of the chief official of the Mysore subordinates who were in attendance on the Maharaja, ~~and~~ but that the

the name of the official was not known to him. Gumasta Garudachar was the man who was on duty at the time in Upper Tirupati, and this fact coupled with the information obtained by the Dharmadarsee locally and what was told me by the Maharaja's Aid-de-camp as stated above, makes me think that Garudachar did obtain the amount in question. He has flatly denied the receipt of it. If he had straightforwardly reported the fact of the present having been made, Government would gladly have sanctioned the distribution of it among the several officials concerned as was once before done when H.H. the Raja of Cochin presented a sum of Rs. 40 on a similar occasion. Garudachar's conduct is, I think, very reprehensible, ~~a serious one~~ and seems to deserve severe notice. Garudachar is not a satisfactory subordinate and he was not given any increase of pay during the recent revision of the Tirupati Establishment as he was not favourably reported upon.

I think that under the circumstances he should be made to pay up the sum of 20 Rs. referred to above, and that, as a punishment, he should be fined ₹s5. The total sum of ₹s25 may be recovered from his pay (which is ₹s15) at the rate of ₹s3 a month. It seems absolutely necessary to award such --- punishment as a deterrent.

A rule may be prescribed for the guidance of the officials and servants at Tirupati that they should not ask for presents from the many visitors to the Charities, and that if any amounts are -- given as an exceptional case by any distinguished visitors, the fact should be immediately reported and the amounts placed in the hands of the Peshkar, and the circumstances reported to Government for orders as to the disposal of the money.

The Dewan's orders recorded on page 6 of this note were issued in this Office No 1442 dy 15th Sept 1905 directing that Samudaghar should be suspended for 6 months & that if within that period he did not produce a letter from the A.D.C, he would be dismissed the service

Flag X

Samudaghar has pet.d this Office enclosing the original* letter of Capt.n Kudheswara Prasad A.D.C to H.H the Maharaja of Benares written from Fort Ramanagar under date the 6th May 1905 The Capt.n writes that the sum of

Rs 20 in question was given by his Cashier to somebody & that neither he nor the Cashier could remember the name, color or caste of the man who received it He adds that he remembers that the money was not given to Garudachar because he says he knew him & that it was paid to somebody else & not to Garudachar. He says that he will say so if the matter is referred to him. He adds a Post-script & says that the money was given to the man standing in front of the Chathram door where Pandits were reciting mantrams.

Garudachar prays that under the circumstances, he may be reinstated in office, the order of his suspension being graciously ordered to be cancelled

Muzrai Secretary's Remarks.

The letter produced by Garudachar from the A.D.C. leaves the matter in doubt. Still, as he says that Rs 20 was given "by my Cashier at the Mysore "Chattram for distribution to the servants", the probabilities are that the amount was given to the chief subordinate present, viz., Garudachar. Under the circumstances of the case, I beg very respectfully to submit that the extreme punishment of dismissal may not be inflicted, but that in its place suspension for three months together with the recovery of the Rs 20 in question and a fine of Rs 5, as recommended in a former part of this Note, may be substituted. This will be a severe warning for the young man and I am of the humble opinion that the punishment now recommended is sufficient under the circumstances of the case.

Muzrai Secretariat. File No. of 190
